I Found Sobriety in the Recovery Pod

A Returning Success

Story By Kathy B

At thirty-eight, was arrested for grand theft against a non-profit organization where I had volunteered for nine years. I lost my children, my house, boat, cars, four wheelers, my dignity and my soul. I was a functioning alcoholic for so long as I didn't even see my downward spiral.

The Recovery Pod opened while I was in the Sarasota County Jail. I requested to be moved into the Pod and entered it a very broken women. I found HOPE in the women who brought the meetings to us. I had never experienced any type of recovery before.

I left the Pod with a determination to one day bring hope to the lost souls of SCJ. I was transported to Charlotte County Jail, where I still had outstanding charges.

I was released on bond, and pan-handled my way to the Salvation It was the one Army. place I knew I would be safe. I checked myself Continued pg. 2

How AA Works

An Old Timer Speaks Out By Lucia T

Every sober day I live is a reminder -- to me and to anyone who might notice -- that the AA way of life keeps on working. The promises don't come with expiration date.

I take nothing for granted -- except maybe not throwing up anymore -and, as time passes, spiritual rewards loom ever more important in my daily AA life. They are no doubt the "carrot" that keeps me coming back.

There aren't enough trees to manufacture the paper I'd need to count the ways. So let me cite just one -- the one that, here and now, is especially meaningful to me. For the past two-plus years I have been privileged to lead one of the AA meetings in the Women's Recovery Pod at the Sarasota County Jail. I wrote about it in the Newsletter, when the experience was new to me and I was bubbling over.

Everything I said then remains true today. It is the

I Found Sobriety in the Recovery Pod in, and began my journey of recovery. The tools I gained in rehab are priceless.

It's been two years since I left the Pod and, thankfully, I have regained all that I lost. It wasn't easy, but with the help of my sponsor and the fellowship of AA, I have exactly what I need. I fought for 2 years to get back to the Pod. This time on the "other side," to bring a meeting inside the walls. Whatever they told me to do- I did.

I was approved to be the very first former inmate of the Recovery Pod to take a meeting back into the Jail. It was so surreal to be able to go into the Pod to be the hope those women so desperately needed. I knew the emptiness behind their eyes and the feelings of hopelessness they lived with every day. I once had it too.

As the door slammed behind me and the automatic lock clicked, I thought I would panic. But it wasn't the confinement that got me- it was the smell. The familiar smell sent chills down my spine. I found several women in the Pod that I knew. It was an amazing experience to be able to carry the message of recovery and hope back to the place where I first got it. This time I felt the freedom in knowing I was able to leave. I also felt overwhelming gratitude to the SCJ for having the recovery Pod.

The 12 Steps have shown me how to live. The women in this fellowship are amazing. No matter what my issues are there is always someone who has been through it.

closest thing we have todav to the oldfashioned 12 Step Call on a wet drunk. Hopefully, I am helping someone. In any case, I get a spiritual recharge every time, and a palpable reminder that it takes all 12 Steps to stay joyous "happy, free."

My message is the simple one that I learned on my first day: "You don't have to drink anymore." Followed fast by "This is what we DO. You can do the same thing. Here's a helping hand." And it's as true today as it was then. As Bill said, "Pass it on."

The Promises By: Kimberly T

Beaten and broken I feel the presence Of something greater than myself As I pry my eyes open I see a door It reads. Past I walk towards it Leaving behind regret I push it open A peace comes over me I put my palms together And breathe Without fear I jump down into the abyss Only to find my sister Stuck to her self I whisper You are not alone As she climbs out Taking the ladder with Staring into the darkness I can see the light That shines within me Guiding me through The dark tunnel Of my mind I see no end in sight But I have faith In a power greater than myself As the fear evades me I open my heart Faced with a decision I come to a halt Two signs stand before Life or Death I make a choice I choose

TRADITION5

"Throughout our structure, a traditional "Right of Appeal" out to prevail, so that minority opinion will be heard and personal grievances receive careful consideration.

Dear Alkie

"Alkie," one of our long time members, believes as the Big Book say, "...that we are not a glum lot."

Dear Alkie: How can I tell if I am really an alcoholic?

Alkie: You can just step over to the nearest bar and have a couple of drinks and see if you can stop. Here are some of the symptoms we have heard in meetings.

- -In the final stages of my drinking I never got to where I wanted to be until I didn't know where I was.
- -One time I woke up in a house and I didn't know where I was. The people in the house didn't know me either.
- -I never had a problem that was as bad as my drinking solution.
- -Alcoholism is like being on fire and drinking to put it out.
- -Alcohol is a solvent that can remove everything from your life.
- -The only time I ever refused a drink was when I didn't hear the question.
